display any hostility towards the Russian government. They declare they love the czar and were led away

only fired two shots at Odessa, and none at Theodosia and never took coal or provisions from any foreign vessel.

Japs Invade Sakhalin.
Tokio, July 10.—According to information received today the Japanese have invaded the island of Sakhalin.

Starts for Washington Saturday.
St. Petersburg, July 10.—It is stated that Muraviev, who will be Russia's ranking plenipotentiary in the peace meeting at Washington,
will start for the United States Friday.

More Bomb Throwing.
Tiflis, Trans-Caucasia, July 10.—
Bomb throwing continues daily. Two Dvorukis were killed and thirteen persons wounded by a bomb, and a policeman was shot last night.

May Complicate Matters.
St. Petersburg, July 10.—With the Japanese flag hoisted for the first time on Russian soil after eight-teen months of war, the importance of landing on the island of Sakhalin is generally admitted both in newspaper comment and in government circles. Complete occupation of the island is regarded as a foregone conclusion.

The Novoe Vremya voices the general sentiment in holding that control of Sakhalin puts a powerful lever in possession of Japanese diplomacy which finally has something tangible in its hands to throw on the scales with the sword in the coming affairs. There is divergency of opinion with regard to the effect it will have on the negotiations at Washington, some of the irreconcilables declaring that it makes peace at the present juncture more impossible than before, as Japan will be able to demand cession of the island and a heavy indemnity.

The attacks on the island certainly disprove one of the hopes of the peace advocates who have been suggesting that its voluntary session might be offset, with Port Arthur and the Chinese railroad, against the payment of a large part of all unnecessary indemnity.

The Novoe Vremya joins in the press chorus against Muraviev, saying it is hard to tell how good a diplomat he will prove, as he certainly was not a success at The Hague. The paper says that Baron Rosen, the other plenipotentiary, on the contrary is a skillful diplomatist, and has been socially successful.

Reports Are Confirmed.
St. Petersburg, July 10.—The occupation of Solovka, Saghalin, by the Japanese, is confirmed in dispatches received today from General Lanvich, commander of the Russian troops in Manchuria.

ONE KILLED.
And Several Hurt by a Fire in New York.

New York, July 10.—Arthur P.
Neely, of Cleveland, was killed and a number of others had a narrow escape in a fire which gutted a double tenement house on 44th street today. Neely leaped from the fourth story window and was crushed on the pavement.

BLEW UP JAIL.
Futile Attempt to Escape by Murphysboro Prisoners.

Murphysboro, Ill., July 10.—An attempt was made by the prisoners in the Jackson county jail to blow
open the jail early yesterday with ul-tro-glycerine. The prisoners say the explosive was furnished by Mrs.
Starna, who is under arrest.

PETE DOWLING WAS KILLED BY TRAIN

Well Known Southpaw Meets
Instant Death in Oregon.

Was Paducah's Star Twirler in the Central League in '07—Had Been in National League.

HE HAD MANY FRIENDS HERE.

St. Louis, Mo., July 8.—Pete Dowling, the ball player, was killed at the railroad crossing near Hot Lake, Ore., today. He d wandered from a sanitarium, where he was taking treatment, and was instantly killed by the train. Dowling was a southpaw and a member in various times of the Louisville, St.
Louis, Milwaukee, Cleveland,
Washington, Spokane and Butte teams. He began the 1905 season with Ogden, and when killed was a member of the La-Grande Independent baseball club.

The above will be read with regret in Paducah, where the unfortunate ball player had many friends.

Dowling, better known as "Blis-mark," because his home was in Blis-
mark, Ill., was Paducah's star twirler in 1897, when Paducah was in the Central league with Evansville, Nashville and other cities.

He and Billy Sudhoff, now with the St. Louis Nationals, were then just beginning their career on the diamond, and both were good twirlers.
Turney Dreyfuss came through Paducah with the Louisville baseball club, and saw Dowling pitch. "He was so well pleased that he bought him from Paducah, and Dowling did well for awhile in the big league, but couldn't stand prosperity, and ha-biting too freely soon encompassed his temporary disability. He was turned loose and drifted back to Paducah, where he worked for a while in the M. M. Leake printing office.
He later braced up again and for several years had played good ball in the western leagues when in condition.

Lately he had been demented, it is claimed by some, from liquor, but with all his faults Dowling was a popular fellow, and could have been one of the best pitchers in the national game.

EIGHT KILLED.

Blast of Powder Exploded Prematurely Yesterday.

Harrisburg, Pa., July 10.—Eight men were blown to pieces and two others were injured by the premature explosion of a big blast of powder on the Pennsylvania railroad improvements near New Cumberland yesterday. The bodies of the eight were terribly mangled and particles of flesh and bone were scattered 200 yards.

Dead: James Wiseman, Arthur
Green, Robert Thompson, Frank Mu-lach and four men known by numbers.

Injured: Wm. Reed, D. C. Miller.

SAGAMORE HILL.

Will Be the Location For the President For Sometime to Come.

Oyster Bay, July 10.—President Roosevelt got down to his routine vacation today and will not move far from Sagamore Hill until August 8.
The president is of the opinion that Assistant State Secretary Holmes should be prosecuted criminally for treach-ery to the agricultural department.

Kentuckian Is 100 Years Old.

Scotch, Neb., July 10.—Andrew Gillespie, formerly of Warren county, Ky., has just celebrated the hundredth anniversary of his birth at his home near here. Gillespie was born near Bowling Green, Ky., in 1805, and was one of ten children.
Later his family moved to Illinois, and his father was a member of the first legislature of that state. Andrew Gillespie has fifteen children, fifty-seven grandchildren, one hundred great grandchildren, and fifty-five great-great-grandchildren.

TEMPERANCE PEOPLE WRECK SALOONS

A Hundred Thousand Dollars Damage in Kansas.

New Receiver Takes Charge of St. Louis Bank—Attempt to Rob
An Express Wagon Failed.

ATTEMPTED WRECKER ARREST

ola, Kansas, July 10.—Several saloons were dynamited here last night by alleged temperance cranks,
and many buildings were wrecked,
the damage being at least a hundred thousand dollars.

Receiver of People's Bank.
St. Louis, July 10.—Judge Spencer arrived at the Women's Magazine building today and announced that he had been appointed receiver
of the People's United States bank.
He immediately went into a conference with E. G. Lewis, promoter of the bank whose business is denied admission to the mails.

Express Robbers Fled.
Laporte Ind., July 10.—A bold attempt was made this morning to rob the U. S. express wagon of a safe said to contain several thousand dollars. The guard was knocked from a wagon by two masked men and rendered unconscious, but managed to open fire as the men were about to blow the safe. The driver came to the rescue and the robbers fled.

Attempted Train Wrecking.
Bowling Green, O., July 10.—
John Williams, a farm hand, is under arrest charged with attempting to wreck the Cincinnati-Hamilton and Dayton flyer the night of July 2.

SUNDAY SHAVE NECESSARY.

St. Louis Judge Holds Barber Shops
May Open on Sabbath Under the Law.

St. Louis, July 10.—The court here holds the Sunday shave to be a necessity within the meaning of the statute, and discharged a barber arrested for violation of the closing law. The president of the police board thereupon ordered that all barber shops be permitted to remain open Sundays.

China Wins Recognition.

Washington, July 10.—China's request to be presented in the peace conference on the ground that she is vitaly interested in its proceedings,
has been received by the president and informally transmitted to the belligerents. Whether the president has received formal replies cannot be learned, but it can be stated that while Russia is inclined to favor the suggestion, Japan will not consent to it. Japan has already made public that Manchuria is to be restored to China.

It is altogether unlikely that the Washington government will press
the claim of China and the official view falls to sympathize with the idea. The past week has seen few developments in the plan for negotiations.

New Hampshire After Washington.

Washington, D. C., July 10.—It is officially announced that Portsmouth, New Hampshire, will be the scene of peace negotiations between Russia and Japan, and Japan, after the removal from Washington. The sessions will be held in a large equipment building at the navy yard in that city. Representatives of both countries have agreed to this plan.

VALUE OF KISS IN COURT.

Jury of Married Men Fail to Agree on Damages for Woman Saluted Unwillingly.

Mouri Carroll, Ill., July 10.— Twelve married men were unable to decide in the Carroll county circuit court how much damages Mrs. Vernie Rahn was entitled to for being kissed by John W. Bowman. After twenty-four hours' deliberation the jury announced that they could not agree.

THREE RIBS.

Fractured by Woman Who Fell Twenty Feet, But She Was Not Awakened.

Petersburg, Ind., July 10.—Mrs.
John L. Griffith, of Oakland City, met with a serious accident at Ot-well, this county. She arose in her sleep and walked out of a door in the second story of the building and fell to the ground, a distance of 29 feet. She broke three ribs and sustained serious internal injuries.
Strange to relate she was not awak-
eared despite her fall and injuries, and a moment later was found by her brother trying to climb in a law-er-door while still asleep.

NOTHING TO SAY.

County Attorney Graves Not Ready
to Make Announcement.

County Attorney Eugene Graves stated this morning that he had made no announcement relative to his proposed intentions of running for police judge against Judge D. L.
Sanders. A local newspaper printed an article saying it was rumored he was considering running—the result of the pressure of friends, but that he had decided nothing and had absolutely nothing to say in regard to the matter.

THOUSANDS OF ELKS

Are Gathering in Buffalo to Attend
the Reunion.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 10.—The reunion of Elks began today. Buffalo welcoming with open arms the thousands of antlered heads. It is estimated that ten thousand Elks arrived yesterday, and hundreds of others are coming by every train.

Count Cassini Leaves For Madrid.

Washington, July 10.—Count Cassini, Russian first ambassador to the United States, after seven years' service, left for New York, whence he sails on Tuesday for Europe, and will later go to his new post at Madrid.
Gathered at the station to bid him
god speed were nearly every diplomat in Washington and a number of the ambassador's personal friends.
Shortly before the train left, Baron De Rosen reached the station and was among the last to say good-bye, greeting his confere in the Russian fashion with a kiss. The last to bid adieu was Baron Mayor Des Planches,
the Italian ambassador, who succeeds Count Cassini as dean of the corps.

Painful Injuries Sustained.

Mrs. M. Rohm and Mrs. Harry Meyers sustained painful injuries
this morning at Fourth and Madison streets, Mrs. Rohm sustaining a fractured collar bone and Mrs. Meyers a scalp wound, by a seat falling out of a surrey in which they were riding.
The hooks holding the seat in place
had not been fastened and the horse gave a sudden jump, throwing the weight of Mrs. Rohm and Mrs. Meyers against the seat, resulting in their being thrown back and out of the buggy. Dr. J. Q. Taylor was called and found the injuries not very serious, but very painful.

Caleb Powers Was Taken to the Newport Jail This Afternoon.

Georgetown, July 10.—There was no conflict between the state and federal courts here today when Judge Stout convened court. Attorney
Franklin moved that the case of Caleb Powers be continued until a decision is rendered by the supreme court on the appeal of the commonwealth from Judge Cochran's decision. This was granted, and when United States Marshal Sharp arrived,

BURIED THE BODY IN HOLE IN CELLAR

Awful Tragedy Believed to Have Been Unearthed.

Philadelphia Man Who Died of Consumption Believed to Have Murdered a Woman.

BODY FOUND IN QUICK LIME

Philadelphia, July 10.—With the back of the head crushed in, mutilated from head to foot and several bones broken, the body of a woman known only as "Annie," was found buried in the cellar of a house, formerly the home of Charles Blumh,
who died in a hospital here May 18.
The police believe that Blumh murdered the woman, who was his housekeeper, and buried the body in the cellar to hide the crime.

A hole had been dug in the middle of the cellar, and a quantity of quick lime thrown in. Blumh's wife left him four years ago. They had been married twenty years, and had four children. He lived with "Annie" two years. She disappeared in December. He was taken ill of consumption and was removed to a hospital. He died without any suspicion resting on him as to the disappearance of the housekeeper. Blumh's wife left the house to his wife. She and her mother went there to live.
The two women detected an odor in the house and they decided to clean.
Entering the cellar they found a small mound of earth. Believing that the husband had buried a dog, they dug up the earth. Under the top layer was a piece of carpet and under that they found the corpse.
The police came to the conclusion that Blumh killed the woman during a quarrel and in his frenzy to hide the crime hacked the body with a hatchet and buried it. The quick lime had consumed only a small portion of the body.

WAS HUNGRY

MR. JAS. SEGENFELTER FOUND
THIEF IN HIS HOUSE.

Had Devoured Everything in Sight
When the Police Arrived on the Scene.

Mr. James Segenfelder, the well-known druggist, who resides on Washington street near Seventh, is trying to solve a puzzle today, whether a glutton, a man starving, or a real burglar, was in his house this morning.

About one o'clock Mr. Segenfelder was awakened by a noise in the rear of his home. He realized that a burglar was in the house and slipping to the telephone, rang up the city hall and called for the police.

The policeman responded within ten minutes, but the intruder had gone, but not before he had eaten everything on the dining table.

The intruder had devoured nearly a whole chicken and many vegetables, and Mr. Segenfelder thinks he must have been a glutton with more desire to eat than to steal valuables,
as the food was all he secured.

Mr. Segenfelder thinks the intruder was frightened away by hearing him telephone to the police station.

Torpedo Bots Damaged.

London, July 10.—A dispatch from Malta says the British torpedo boat destroyers Barnet and Locust collided near Ergestoria, France and both were damaged.

An Easy Victory.
Threatening weather kept a large crowd from Wallace park Sunday afternoon when the Indians took the third straight game from the Hens by a score of 11 to 3, the greatest number of scores the team has made against any team in the league. The weather was threatening but no rain fell after "play ball" was called at 3:35 o'clock.

Paducah "clutched" the game in the first inning. The Indians played the "walt" game and Gilbert got nervous and couldn't control himself. Five runs were piled up in this inning by three bases on balls, one run struck by the ball and three hits. The Indians scored again in the 5th and 6th innings, making three tallies in each inning. In these innings a thrown ball to catch a base runner went wild and prevented the Braves from making the runs earned.

The Hens "touched" up Platt a little lively at times, making eight hits off him. Their first score was secured in the 4th inning and the other two in the 6th and 7th innings. The summary follows:

Vincennes Loses Again.
Princeton, July 10.—Yesterday's game makes the seventh out of eight played in the past week which the infants have found it an easy matter to take from the Alice Men. The poor disrupted one time leaders in the Kitty pennant race seem to be all shot to pieces and it is expected that the Mud Wallpapers, with whom they play next, will get the four games scheduled to come off at Cairo in the next three days.

For the visitors Duggan put them over and for the second time the infants found him for a bunch of hits. Nine were the number on this occasion and they netted the locals five big juicy runs. Carnes worked against him, as he did the last time Duggan received his beating, and although he allowed seven hits the best the visitors could do with them was to shove two men over the plate.

The score:

Vincennes, .....	2	7	2
Princeton, .....	5	9	5

Batteries—Duggan and Lemon; Carnes and Downing.

Cairo, July 10.—The crowd was yesterday very enthusiastic at the Sportsman's park here. Orth Collins, the new man, rapped a two-bagger which scored three men and won the game in the seventh inning. Gregory, Cairo's new pitcher from Minneapolis, was in the box.

The score:

Earned runs, Paducah 3. Passed ball, Clegg. Double plays, Asher to Uhl to Gilbert; Perry to Potts to Gilligan. Left on bases, Henderson 5, Paducah 6. Wild pitches, South 2. Struck out by Kubitz 1; South 10. Time of game, 1:30.

Hedges has a bad arm and asked to be released from the team. He has not been in good shape this season, and his request was granted.

President Brown of the Kitty league, will go to St. Louis tomorrow on business.

Lloyd, Bohannon and Potts did the heavy sticking yesterday.

Gilbert seems to be an overrated pitcher. The feature of his work is the "Terrible Turk" face he wears and the antics he goes through when delivering the ball.

Bohannon is one of the surest hitters in the league.

Potts has his eyes on the ball and is the same Potts of two years ago. His hitting is becoming a feature of the team work.

Gilligan was the only Indian to fail to secure a hit off Gilbert yesterday, but this was through luck on the part of Gilbert. Gilligan is becoming a doubt one of the headiest players in the league and the team work of the Indians which has won for them the station held in the pennant race, is due largely to the coaching and headwork of Gilligan.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: "Charley Street was given his first chance to catch a full game in Red Hosiery and he performed to the satisfaction of all, behind the bat. The game was not a severe test for him as the Cardinals' hitting was light, and the bases were unoccupied a large part of the time. No one had the nerve to try to steal on him, so his throwing in practice must have looked all right. He backstopped in perfect style, but could not hit a flick. That is quite natural after his long lay-off, which is bound to affect the batting eye first of all. Street's performance indicates that he is ready to go in and do good work whenever he is called on.

Cairo and Vincennes will play a double header this afternoon.

Reports from Poplar Bluff state that the men who struck on the team here are playing very good ball. Larsen is at third, Blackburn at first, Price in the outfield and Wilder and Wagner pitching. Wilder, though, will, if he has not already done so, leave in a day or so to join the outlaw team at Mt. Vernon, O.—Cairo Bulletin.

Bill Frakes, who went home to have an operation performed ten days ago, returned yesterday and will pitch today's game against the Raylets.

French, second baseman for Henderson, and one of the fastest in the league, was disabled the first game and this in a measure crippled the team. His hitting might have changed the games somewhat had he been in the game.

Can hardly wait until that husky bunch of Indians drills over here from Paducah. They have a surprise awaiting them which will scare them to death. The chance they have of getting two out of three this time is so slim that it can't be seen at all. In fact they have but a very slight one to get even one. About one out of the six will have to suffice them this time.—Cairo Bulletin.

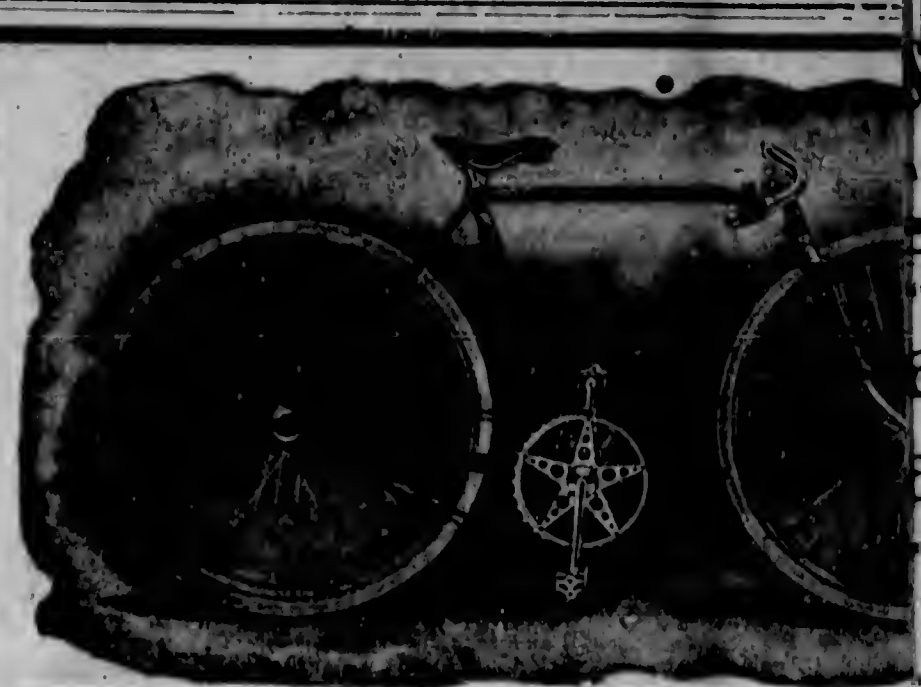

S. S. Eckstone, a pitcher who has been with Cairo, has joined the Raylets. He left the Cairo team, not showing up as well as the Mud Wallpapers wanted him to.

Larry Schaffey, who once wore a Milwaukee uniform, recently pulled off a triple play unassisted at Seattle. This is how he did it: In the first inning, with Russ Hall Seattle's shortstop, at second, and Walters, the Seattle center fielder, at first, First Haseman Klemmer made what appeared to be a low outfield hit. It failed to carry, and was brought down by Schaffey. In the meantime both Hall and Walters had started to run. Schaffey touched the second base, retiring Hall, and then unassisted caught Walters and touched

The Princeton team arrived from Princeton this morning after having defeated the Kolbies again Sunday, and will open with The Indians this afternoon. The Raylets pushed the Kolbies down the toboggan slide below the Indians, and Ray says he is now going to push the Indians down a few notches. Ray will pitch Becker this afternoon and Lloyd will work back against him. Tomorrow will be Ladies' Day.

No City League Games.
There were no games in the city league yesterday. The L. A. L. team first had a game with the Centrals, but this fell through and the Famous team was challenged but unable to play on account of crippled members. The F. W. Coombs were approached but having no pitcher declined to play.

SURVEY FINISHED FOR NEW RAILROAD

Will Run From Fort Jefferson
to Bristol, Tenn.

Will Pass Through Mayfield—Cost of the New Line Will Be Close to $12,500,000.

$750,000 COST MAYFIELD LINE

Clarksville, Tenn., July 10.—Civil engineers have finished surveying the route for the proposed new railroad which is to traverse the southern edge of Kentucky terminating at Fort Jefferson or vicinity.

The name of the new company is the Ohio and Tennessee River Railroad company, and its eastern terminus will be Bristol, Sullivan county, Tenn. Leaving that point the road will run through the counties of Hawkins, Hancock, Claiborne and Campbell in this state and go into Kentucky in Whitley county. The Kentucky counties through which the road will run are Whitley, Wayne, Clinton, Cumberland, Monroe, Allen, Simpson, Logan, Todd, Christian, Trigg, Callaway, Marshall, Graves, Carlisle and Ballard.

The company is negotiating for a loan of $12,500,000 with the International Trust company of New York. The prospects are that this loan will be made to the railroad company. The first section of the road will be erected from Fort Jefferson to Mayfield, Ky., and the terms with the trust company are that $750,000 will be spent in building this portion of the line. B. and H. E. Lochridge, of Mayfield, Ky., are president and secretary-treasurer of the new company.

Mayfield Survey Complete.

Mayfield, Ky., July 10.—The corps of engineers, who have been at work on the Ohio and Tennessee river railroad survey, since June 1, will complete the profile this week.

The names of those who have been interested in this work are Mr. Hood Tucker, chief engineer; L. L. Pearson, assistant, assisted by P. O. Russell, J. H. Holt, J. M. Moore, C. B. Fritzsche, H. M. Smith and A. H. Beaumont.

There will be seven depots on this road, one at Ft. Jefferson, one at Mayfield and five at intermediate points.

The people along the line between here and Ft. Jefferson are becoming very much interested in the new road, and most of them are anxious to sign the right of way, knowing that this new line will develop a fine section of country that has heretofore remained undeveloped.

Mr. Wade Short Operated On.

LAUNDRY DAMAGED

WAHL BROS. SUFFER CONSID-ERABLE LOSS FROM FIRE.

A Grocery on the South Side Slightly Damaged—Small Blaze on Broad Street.

The Wahl laundry on South Third near Kentucky, was damaged by fire Saturday night about 1 o'clock to the extent of $1,500 or $2,000. The blaze originated under the stairway in the rear of the building on the first floor, and the Messrs. Wahl suspect incendiarism as the back door was found open, and there had been no fire about the place during the day.

The fire department soon extinguished the blaze, which had gained great headway when discovered. The building is owned by the Milam estate.

The laundry, when owned by Mr. Hishop eighteen months ago, caught fire in the same place and was badly damaged.

Mr. Wahl's stock of wall paper in the building adjoining the laundry was also damaged to the extent of $750 or $200 by water soaking through the walls, but each roll of paper will have to be examined before it can be ascertained how much the damage is. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

The Messrs. Wahl have made arrangements to have their work done the same as usual until repairs are made.

The Nos. 2 and 3 fire departments were called to the residence of Mr. Jim Bulger, at 1719 Broad street, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

A fire was burning out and a portion of the room had become ignited. The fire was extinguished with the chemical engine without more damage than several dollars.

A small blaze in the Wilkins grocery at Ninth and Tennessee streets was extinguished by the fire departments about midnight. The fire originated near some coal oil barrels and little damage resulted.

DENIES CHARGE

That Insurance Rates Are Too High
in Kentucky.

Louisville, Ky., July 10.—The Kentucky and Tennessee board of Fire Underwriters will invite Henry R. Prewitt, the commissioner of insurance to inspect its books and records, with a view to ascertaining whether the charges of extortionate rates are true. Claude F. Snyder, the secretary of the board, says that he will give the commissioner every opportunity to ascertain the facts. The charge has been made that the fire insurance rates in Kentucky are too high in some of the cities and towns and that there is no reason for the higher rate. Gov. Beekham has asked the commissioner of insurance to investigate.

Mr. Snyder denied that the rates charged in Kentucky are high. He said they are lower than they are in Tennessee and are reasonable in every case. He is willing, he said, that the commissioner should make the investigation, and the board will assist him in every way.

INTERESTING INCIDENT.

Marked the Close of the Teachers' Institute.

Quite an interesting incident occurred at the last session of the county teachers' institute Friday afternoon, when Mrs. Nellie B. Duley, the talented elocutionist, read a poem written by another gifted woman of Paducah, Mrs. Martha Grubb-Purcell, the conductor of the institute.

Before beginning the reading, Mrs. Duley stated the circumstances which inspired the writing of the poem, and paid a fine tribute to the writer.

VACATION.

For Your Summer Outing

Allow us to suggest Colorado and Utah, famous the world over for their cool and invigorating climate, magnificent mountain scenery and picturesque summer resorts, which are located along the line of the Denver and Rio Grande, "The Scenic Line of the World." Very low excursion rates and "Circle" tour tickets are on sale during the summer months via these lines to all the principal points of interest. The Denver and Rio Grande, with its numerous branches penetrating the great states of Colorado and Utah have some forty different "Circle" tours through the Rocky mountains, one of which in particular is the famous 1,000 mile tour for $28.00, which comprises more noted scenery than any similar trip in the world, passing the following points of interest: La Veta Pass, Poncha Pass, Toltec Gorge, Indian reservations, Durango, Mancos Canon, Rico, Lizard Head Pass, Las Animas Canon, Silverton, Ouray, Cimarron Canon, Black Canon of the Gunnison, Marshall Pass and the Royal Gorge. This trip can be comfortably made in five days, but at least ten days should be devoted to it, so that one may view at leisure the principal sights. Tickets at very low rates are also on sale at Salt Lake City, Utah. If you contemplate a trip through Colorado or Utah, let us send you some beautifully illustrated booklets free.

saying she felt honored herself in having the privilege of presenting the poem to the public for the first time.

The theme of the poem is a legend of "The Falls of Noenah," this being the name of an Indian girl who is supposed to have leaped from the rocks at the head of the Falls, which form one of the many places of interest in the scenery of Adakout Mountain.

The lines are written in the meter of Hwaatha and it is no hyperbole to say that they may with propriety be compared with this popular poem of Longfellow.

To properly appreciate Mrs. Duley one must hear her, and in this instance she gave a fine interpretation of the theme.

The program committee arranged with Mrs. Duley to give this in compliment to the instructor, Mrs. Dr.

He is a wise man who wastes no energy in pursuit for which he is not fitted, for there is a limit to the human body and the human brain—Glaistone.

A GRATUITOUS INSULT.

The Kentucky press in its comment on Judge Cochran's decision in the Caleb Powers case, transferring it to federal court, has been almost unanimous in giving Judge Cochran credit for being fair and sincere. An exception is the state machine's mouthpiece, the Frankfort State Journal,—organ of the power that has hounded Powers through three farcical trials for his life.

The State Journal insults the federal judiciary in general, and Judge Cochran in particular, with this contemptible slander:

"As The State Journal predicted, Judge Cochran took jurisdiction in the Powers case. Of course the law and precedent are against such outrageous action, but a republican federal judge is more than all a partisan, and notwithstanding Senator McCreary and others said that Cochran was a 'conscientious Christian gentleman,' we were satisfied that he would do as bid by his associates. Judge Cochran may be all right in ordinary cases, but when politics puts a figure he couldn't look the opposing power in the face and decide any other than a partisan way. Federal judges are usually named for that purpose.

"It is understood that the attorneys for the state of Kentucky will show that Judge Cochran was not competent to sit in this case. That he is not only a personal friend of the defendant, but that certain acts of his render him incapable of a fair decision in the premises.

"We have not read the decision but one thing is sure, if the highest court sustains this high-handed and outrageous usurpation of state's rights, every convict in the penitentiary can make and maintain a similar claim for federal interference in his case."

The State Journal convicts itself of ignorance and partisanship when it admits, after its gross affront to Judge Cochran, that "we have not read the decision."

Of course the State Journal is entitled to its opinion, and is fully within its rights in expressing it in its own way, but the people of Kentucky will hardly be willing to concede to a paper that talks about a judge not being competent to "sit" in a case, the right to usurp the prerogatives of our courts and decide such cases.

The Louisville Herald fairly con-

strues the decision as follows:

"The ground on which Judge Cochran orders the transference of the case from state to federal jurisdiction is based on Section 641 of the Revised Statutes of the United States. That section declares:

"When any civil or criminal prosecution is commenced in any state court, for any cause which, however, against any person who is denied or cannot enforce in the judicial tribunals of the state, or in the part of the state where such suit or prosecution is pending, any right secured to him by any law providing for the equal civil rights of citizens of the United States, or of all persons within the jurisdiction of the United States, such suit or prosecution may, upon the petition of such defendant, filed in said state court at any time before the trial or final hearing of the cause, stating the facts and verified by oath, be removed for trial into the next circuit court to be held in the district where it is pending."

"Caleb Powers, unable, as Judge Cochran decides, to get his rights in the Scott circuit court, is placed under Federal jurisdiction.

"Judge Cochran's decision shows scrupulous regard for state's rights, but not less regard for the individual rights of American citizens, guaranteed under the Constitution and laws of the United States. It is a decision that must command universal respect. It will do marvelous good in inspiring respect for law, for constitutional rights, state and federal, and for the integrity of trial by jury. It is not a republican victory, but a notable triumph of justice."

The Lexington Herald, Independent, says:

"After five years the results of the trials of Powers are first that he stands today innocent in the eyes of the law, the court of appeals having decided that in no one of the three trials was he proven guilty and convicted in accordance with the statutes. Therefore, he stands before the state court, as he stood this day five years ago, when his case was first called for trial. The further result is that after three trials in the Scott circuit court, the United States district judge takes the case from the state court to the United States court upon the ground that he has been denied his rights; that he has been and is denied the equal protection of the laws in that court. During the five years and four months since Powers was arrested he has been in jail. His punishment could not have been more severe if he is guilty; no greater injustice could have been done him than has been done him if he is innocent. And yet the cost to him, great as it is in loss of liberty, in the loss of five years of his life, in money and labor and suffering, is infinitesimal as compared to the cost to the state and her citizens. If guilty he should have been hanged long since; if innocent he should have been acquitted long since. Whether guilty or innocent he was and is entitled to a fair and impartial trial by an unbiased and unapproachable jury, before a just judge, and to have a verdict rendered in accordance with the law and the evidence. The trials in which he has been denied equal protection of the law, according to the decision of Judge Cochran, have cost the state thousands and thousands of dollars, and what is of infinitely more importance, has put a blot upon the reputation of her courts and her judicial system."

CHURCH NEWS

Two hundred delegates are expected to attend the Paducah district conference of the Methodist church, which begins tomorrow afternoon at the Third street Methodist church. The churches will have about ten delegates each, and in addition to the local churches the following will be represented: Paducah circuit, Harlow, Woodville, Clinton, Wickliffe, Lovelaceville, Milburn, Spring Hill, Wingo, Mayfield station, Mayfield circuit, Briensburg, Birmingham, Oaklevel, Sedalia.

The conference lasts until Friday. The Rev. J. H. Roberts, presiding elder of the Paducah district, will preside during the session. Meetings will be held at 11 o'clock in the morning and at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The opening sermon will be preached Tuesday night by the Rev. L. D. Hamilton, of Clinton, Ky.

The conference quartet, composed of the Rev. C. A. Waterfield, of Mayfield; the Rev. H. C. Johnson, of Hickman; the Rev. J. J. Thomas, of Greenfield, and the Rev. J. P. Wilson, of Martin, will be here to attend. Among the prominent Methodists who will be present are: Dr. Seth Ward, of Nashville, missionary secretary; Dr. Fitzgerald Parker, Epworth league secretary; Dr. W. R. Lambuth, Nashville missionary secretary, and Dr. J. J. Tigert, book editor of the Southern Methodist, of Nashville.

The Third street Methodist church has been handsomely decorated for the conference which convenes Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Tonight some special services will be held in the church, conducted by Rev. Mr. H. Brasfield, of Barlow, Ky.

BENTON MARSHAL

Is 82 Years Old—Dr. Sam Graham Strong and Vigorous.

Dr. Sam Graham, a prominent physician and politician of Marshall county, is now city marshal of Benton. He is perhaps the oldest city marshal ever known in Kentucky.

He was born in Chatham county, Georgia, in 1823 and is now 82 years old.

He is a fine physician, a man of classical education and well informed in medicine, politics and religion.

He represented Marshall and Lyon counties in the constitutional convention that made our present constitution.

He is yet strong and vigorous and is making citizens of Benton a brave and fearless city marshal.—Mayfield Messenger.

REGULAR TRAINS

GO OVER BRIDGE

Railroad Officials Today Accepted the New Work.

The Noon East Train Was the First Regular Train to Go Over the New Bridge.

ALL THE TRAINS NOW USE IT.

The new $1,000,000 steel bridge over Tennessee river at Gilbertsville is now in service, having been thrown open and placed in use at 10 o'clock this morning. The opening of the bridge was not accompanied by any demonstration, the acceptance being made by representatives from the contracting companies doing the work, and agents for the I. C.

The opening of the bridge was delayed after its practical completion by placing the machinery in the interlocking plant, and it was not until the machinery had been perfected that the road officials were authorized to accept the work. This morning Mr. H. McCourt, assistant superintendent of southern lines, Superintendent A. H. Egan, Roadmaster F. J. Thompson, of the Louisville division; Roadmaster Hill, of the Tennessee division, and General Agent John Donovan, of Paducah, went to Gilbertsville to make a final inspection before acceptance. All machinery was found to be in perfect order and Mr. Egan and Mr. McCourt acting for the road, accepted the entire contract and threw the bridge open for service.

The first regular train to pass over the new bridge was No. 102, the fast passenger train between Memphis and Louisville. There had been several work trains to pass over, this being necessary in completing the work, and one special train bearing Fourth Vice President Harahan. Mr. Harahan's train was really the first train to go over, but this was before the work was accepted one day last week.

The bridge is one of the finest the I. C. owns and is a type of perfection. Work was started last year in the spring and the original intention was to have the bridge completed and in service by the first of this year, but cold weather delayed the work and other delays were suffered from other sources. The work was done by contract and the contractors' work was closely watched by the railroad officials at all stages, from the starting of the first pier to the screwing up of the last bolt.

The I. C. has several bridges to open this year, but none as large and important as this, and it decided not to have any demonstrations. The trains are now running regularly over the new structure and the old bridge, a quarter of a mile south, has been abandoned.

The new bridge was built first because the old bridge, a wooden structure, partially burned, and a new one was needed. The location selected was a quarter of a mile north of the old one and makes a straight route. The officials will remain at the bridge until the afternoon accommodation train passes, and return to Paducah.

The crew of the train, which will have the distinction of being the first regular passenger train to go over the new bridge, is as follows: Conductor John Wheeler, Engineer L. L. Kofler and Fireman David Kennedy. The engine pulling the train was No. 204.

STAR CHAMBER SESSION.

Will Be That of the Peace Plenipotentiaries.

Washington, July 10.—Russia and Japan have solemnly agreed that when they meet here the peace plenipotentiaries will tell not one word officially or informally about the progress of the negotiations; will give no hint of the proposals that are being discussed.

When they agree to the terms of the treaty and it is signed its terms will be given to the world; until then the plenipotentiaries will preserve absolute secrecy and silence.

Both nations feel so strongly on this point that this understanding, in effect, was made a condition before even the preliminaries to the negotiations began. At the bottom of their joint demand for secrecy is their mutual desire to settle their fight themselves, without regard to any other power or commission of powers. Russia believes she can make better terms with Japan alone than with the support of outside influence, which, necessarily, would come from some power which the Japanese regard with suspicion. Neither does the czar propose to be used as a tool to protect or advance the eastern rights of other nations. He proposes to do the best he can for Russia and leave other powers to take care of themselves. Japan is equally determined that no power shall dictate to her or conspire to rob her of the fruits of her victory.

THE TELEPHONE FRANCHISE IS SOLD

Attorney D. H. Hughes Buys it for $20 Individually.

The East Tennessee Company Wants No Franchise and Did Not Bid On It.

IT MAY END IN A FIGHT

Mayor D. A. Yelzer this morning at 10:17 o'clock sold a telephone franchise to Attorney D. H. Hughes, who bid individually. The franchise was sold for $20.

There were two bidders, Attorney Mike Oliver, of Benton, who represented the Marshall county telephone company and Attorney D. H. Hughes, Mayor Yelzer at 10 o'clock found no bidders on hand, and telephoned Attorney Hughes, a member of the firm of Wheeler, Hughes & Berry, who represent the Cumberland Telephone Co. Mr. Hughes came over and Mayor Yelzer then began the sale.

Three bids only were offered, Attorney Hughes bidding $10, Attorney Oliver raised it to $15, and Attorney Hughes then bid $20.

It may be said will be annulled or not ratified by the general council because the price is lower than the minimum price fixed in the ordinance. The ordinance reads that the purchase price shall not be under $500, but fixes no limit above that. The ordinance further provides that the sale shall be subject to the ratification or rejection of the general council.

Attorney Hughes was seen this morning after the sale and stated the reason he bid was in the interest of some friends in Morganfield, Union county, who own an independent telephone line franchise, connected with Owensboro and Henderson, and he thought the franchise, being so cheap, might do them some good here.

As stated on a number of occasions, the East Tennessee company does not need and does not want such a franchise, and did not bid on it.

Mayor Yelzer sold the franchise in pursuance of instructions, which stated simply that he should sell a franchise about 10 o'clock on the morning of July 10 at the city hall door to the highest bidder. He followed out the instructions which were regularly printed in the papers but will of course have to report to the council and board of aldermen.

"It is not known" whether this will end the telephone farce or not, but it is supposed it will. The East Tennessee or Cumberland Telephone company claims it needs no franchise in Paducah, and has never had one. It has always operated under a legislative grant made years before there were franchises.

A few months ago the company agreed to satisfy the city to pay it $3,000 in payment for all claims the city held against it and agreed to accommodate the city further and buy a franchise and pay a tax on it every year, although it does not have to. The city agreed in return for part of the money paid to give the company a franchise, but when it came up in the boards a wrangle resulted and legislative boards refused to vote for the sale if any kind of a franchise except one that would greatly injure the telephone company by restricting it to rates less than it gets now and than it can get for the next 20 years, were offered.

Mayor Yelzer stated this afternoon that he thought the franchise sale today would stand, as the ordinance does not say that the franchise shall not be sold to an individual for less than the amount bid this morning.

Result to Mr. Ed Guthrie From Flash Light.

Mr. Ed Guthrie, the well known merchant, is wearing a bandage and glove over his right hand and says he will dabble with amateur photography no more.

Last night Mr. Guthrie was sitting in his room reading his paper when his son, Robert Guthrie, who has a flash light camera and takes pictures, came in and asked his father to let him take his picture.

The boy arranged his flash light apparatus and soon had a flash light of his father. The youth then charged the flash light frame again and explained its workings to the father, so the latter could work it.

Instead of touching the fuse, Mr. Guthrie touched the match into the powder and his hand was badly burned, necessitating the attendance of a physician.

KILLED AGED WIFE TO GET RID OF HER

August Otto Tells How He Murdered Woman.

Deed Was Committed With a Large Mallet—Told the Police She Fell Down the Stairs.

THEN HE MADE A CONFESSION.

Cleveland, O., July 10.—August Otto, an elderly, decrepit man, killed his wife with a mallet. She was also old and feeble. The couple had several grown up children.

Old Otto, after the crime, attempted to hide all evidences of his guilt. He said that she had fallen down stairs, causing the terrible bruises on her head.

But in a few hours Chief of Police Kohler secured a confession from him. This is the story the old man told.

"Yes, I killed my wife." She had only a couple of months to live any way, so I thought it would make no difference. Besides, the rent was due the 13th and we were going to move. It would save trouble and expense to have the old woman out of the way.

"I had decided to do the deed several days before. How to do it without directing suspicion to myself was the question. I didn't want to go to jail. To kill her was easy. She was old and helpless and could make no resistance. But I wanted to make her appear the result of accident.

"How I thought and pondered over it all! I could not sleep nights for thinking of it. Her breathing at night made me mad. 'You must stop breathing,' I said aloud. She heard me and asked me what I was saying. I told her it was nothing. Her words aroused in me a passion of hatred. I think I must have been mad all the time.

"It was in the morning of her death, about 5 o'clock, that I hit upon a plan. Then nothing held me back. Ah, it was a clever plan, was it not?"

The aged murderer turned to the officers with a touch of pride. He wanted their admiration.

"After dinner I helped her to her big chair in the next room. She went to sleep, she who never had to do any work but slept, slept all the time. And they scolded me because I was too weak to work.

"In the woodshed I found a carpenter's mallet. With this I crept back into the room. There she lay, her face upturned, her eyes closed in sleep. Now was my time. There was no one in the house to hear her should she cry out.

"Once, twice I struck her with all my strength full on her face. She woke with a feeble cry and started to weep. Blood was streaming down her cheeks and over her chin. The sight crazed me.

"Have you got enough," I cried, meaning was it enough to do for her. She made no reply, but only wept. Then I struck again and again, how many times I do not know. But I did not stop until I knew she was past her scolding.

"Her blood was streaming down in to the carpet. Some of it got on my hands. This gave me a new idea. I held my hands under the stream and filled them with it. Then I went out and threw it on the cellar steps and on the floor. It would make them think she had dropped it when I carried her from the cellar.

"My clothes were bloody and I changed them. I threw the wet garments under a sofa. The mallet I washed and hid in the attic over the kitchen. Then I felt safe. It was a clever plan, was it not?"

Court Over at Mayfield.

Mayfield, Ky., July 10.—The June term of circuit court adjourned Saturday. The grand jury did not finish its work until later in the day. Fifteen indictments were returned Friday.

David Desberger, of Paducah, who conducted a clothing store for a few weeks in the corner Park building, and who was indicted for peddling without license, was fined $50 on confession.

Nothing was done by the grand jury towards unravelling the mystery surrounding the murder of the unknown man found under the straw pile out upon the Reynolds farm, near Mayfield.

Sixty-three indictments were returned during the term.

Will Not Come Back.

Morganfield, Ky., July 10.—Clumde Slaton, the young Sturgis bank cashier, has been missing three weeks, but nothing was thought of it until about a week ago. He left ostensibly to accept the position of cashier in a bank at Booneville, Ark. For this purpose he borrowed from his and his wife's father, Mr. Wallace, considerable money, which he took with him in cash. It has now come to light that for some weeks Slaton had been in close correspondence with a former sweetheart, a widow, of Kansas City, Mo. The Slaton family is one of the best in the county, as is also the Wallace family, who are quite wealthy. Slaton's wife is a lovely young woman, who is almost completely crushed with grief at her husband's disappearance. An official of the Sturgis National bank, in which Slaton was cashier, had a letter from Slaton saying he would never come home.

Kept Out by Blacksmith Shop.

Louisville, Ky., July 10.—Louisville's new $425,000 armory is to be built with the drill hall 50 feet shorter than was planned. This space will continue to be occupied by the one-story blacksmith shop of Patrick Kirley. When the armory site was bought it was not taken into consideration that Kirley had a lease on his property with option of five years renewal. He proposes to remain where he is unless paid $5,000. He has refused an offer of $2,500.

Mayfield People Wed.

Mayfield, Ky., July 10.—Mrs. Robert Flood has a letter from her mother, Mrs. M. M. Drake, of Holton, Kansas, stating that Miss Nell Drake has been married to Mr. Philip Slaughter, of Mayfield, last Wednesday. Mr. Slaughter is son of Mr. J. R. Slaughter, of the city, and left Mayfield last week for Holton. The bride has frequently visited in Mayfield and she is a sister of Mrs. Robert Flood. The couple will reside in Kansas.

Prof. W. B. Kurtzinger and Miss Orie Henson, of Emory Farm, Graves county, were in the city Friday evening en route to Cairo where they were married Saturday. They were accompanied by Mr. Eliza Holda and Miss Rodgers.

Cheerfully Recommended for Illumination.

O. G. Higbee, Danville, Ill., writes Dec. 2, 1901: "About two years ago I was laid up for four months with rheumatism. I tried Ballard's Snow Liniment; one bottle cured me. I can cheerfully recommend it to all suffering from like affliction."

STILL "WET."

Remarkable Termination of a Local Option Election at Deaneville.

Deaneville is still a "wet" town, although the local option people claim that they are in a large majority and all arrangements were made for burying the "wets" under an avalanche of ballots, says the Owensboro Messenger. They are sure, however, that foul play was all that kept them from winning. No election was held, because there were no ballots. What became of the ballots no one knows. They were printed in Hartford in due form and started to Deaneville in time to be there for the opening of the election Friday morning. That is the last that is definitely known of them.

When the judges of the election, with due solemnity, opened the ballot box it contained a number of very pretty fuzzy blotters, but not a single ballot. They had disappeared between the time of leaving Hartford and the hour of opening the polls.

The local option people are sure that the ballots were stolen by the whiskey element. The liquor men express in unstated terms their indignation at such a charge, and, in spite of all the indications which are said to be dead against them, declare that they were as anxious for the election to be held as the local optionists themselves.

Arrangements will be made for holding another election. The election will be held as soon as the regulations can be complied with.

The Adventure of the Solitary Cyclist

No. 4 of the Series

The heath was covered with golden patches of flowering gorse gleaming magnificently in the light of the bright spring sunshine. I looked one of these chimps I took up my position so as to command both the gateway of the hall and a long stretch of the road upon either side. It had been deserted when I left it, but now I saw a cyclist riding down it from the opposite direction to that in which I had come. He was clad in a dark suit, and I saw that he had a black beard. On reaching the end of the Charlington grounds he sprang from his machine and fell through a gap in the hedge, disappearing from my view.

A quarter of an hour passed, and then a second cyclist appeared. This time it was the young lady coming from the station. I saw her look about her as she came to the Charlington hedge. An instant later the man emerged from his hiding place, springing upon his cycle and followed her. In all the bright landscape there were the only moving figures, the graceful girl sitting very straight upon her machine and the man behind her leaning low over his handle bar with a curious, furtive suggestion in every movement. She looked back at him and showed her face. He slowed also. She stopped. He at once stopped, too, keeping 200 yards behind her. Her next movement was as unexpected as it was spirited. She suddenly wheeled her wheel round and dashed straight at him. It was as quick as she, however, he darted off in desperate flight. Presently she came back up the road again, her head haughtily in the air, and, deigning to take any further notice of her silent attendant. He had turned also and still kept his distance until the curve of the road hid them from my sight.

I remained in my hiding place, and I was well that I did so, for presently the man reappeared, cycling slowly back. He turned in at the hall gate and dismounted from his machine. For some minutes I could see him standing among the trees. His hands were raised, and he seemed to be settling his middle. Then he mounted his cycle and rode away from me down the drive toward the hall. I ran across the road and peered through the trees. Far away I could catch glimpses of the old gray building, with its bristling Tudor chimneys, but the drive ran through a dense shrubbery, and I saw no more of my man.

However, it seemed to me that I had done a fairly good morning's work, and I walked back to high spirits to Paducah. The local house agent could tell me nothing about Charlington Hall and referred me to a well known firm in Pall Mall. There I halted on my way home and met with courtesy from the representative. No, I could not have Charlington Hall for the summer. I was just too late. It had been let about a month ago. Mr. Williamson was the name of the tenant. He was a respectable, elderly gentleman. The police agent was afraid he could say no more, as the affairs of his clients were not matters which he could discuss.

Mr. Sherlock Holmes listened with attention to the long report which I was able to present to him that evening, but it did not elicit that word of curt praise which I had hoped for and should have valued. On the contrary, his austere face was severe.

"Your hiding place, my dear Watson, was very faulty. You should have been behind the hedge. Then you would have had a close view of this interesting person. As it is, you were some hundreds of yards away and can tell me even less than Miss Smith. She thinks she does not know the man. I am convinced she does. Why, otherwise, should he be so desperately anxious that she should not get so near him as to see his features? You describe him as bending over the handle bar. Concealment again, you see. You really have done remarkably badly. He returns to the house, and you want to find out who he is. You come to a London house agent!"

"What should I have done?" I cried, with some heat.

"Close to the nearest public house. That is the center of country gossip. They would have told you every name from the master to the scullery maid. Williamson? It conveys nothing to my mind. If he is an elderly man he is not this active cyclist who springs away from that young lady's athletic pursuit. What have we gained by your expedition? The knowledge that the girl's story is true. I never doubted it. That there is a connection between the cyclist and the hall. I never doubted that either. That the hall is tenanted by Williamson. Who's the better for that? Well, well, my dear sir, don't look so depressed. We can do little more until next Saturday, and in the meantime I may make one or two in-thought. I should be none the worse for a quiet, peaceful day in the country, and I am inclined to run down this afternoon and rest one or two theories which I have formed."

Holmes' quiet day in the country had a singular termination, for he arrived at Baker street late in the evening with a cut lip and a discolored lump upon his forehead, besides a general air of dissipation which would have made his own person the fitting object of a Scotland Yard investigation. He was immensely tickled by his own adventures and laughed heartily as he recounted them.

"I get so little active exercise that it is always a treat," said he. "You are aware that I have some proficiency in quicker myself."

Next morning he had a note from Miss Smith recounting shortly and accurately the very incidents which I had seen, but the path of the letter lay in the postscript:

"I am sure that you will respect my confidence, Mr. Holmes, when I tell you that my place here has become difficult owing to the fact that my employer has proposed marriage to me. I am convinced that his feelings are most deep and most honorable. At the same time my promise is of course given. He took my refusal very seriously, but also very gently. You can understand, however, that the situation is a little strained."

"Our young friend seems to be getting into deep waters," said Holmes thoughtfully as he finished the letter. "The case certainly presents more features of interest and more possibility of development than I had originally the good old British sport of boxing. Unusually it is of service; today, for example, I should have come to very ignominious grief without it."

I begged him to tell me what had occurred.

"I found that country path which I had already recommended to your notice, and there I made my discreet inquiries. I was in the bar, and a garrulous landlady was giving me all that I wanted. Williamson is a white bearded man, and he lives alone with a small staff of servants at the hall. There is some rumor that he is or has been a clergyman, but one or two incidents of his short residence at the hall struck me as peculiarly unclerical. I have already made some inquiries at a clerical agency, and they tell me that there was a man of that name in orders whose career has been a singularly dark one."

NEW BOOKS

WILL BE IN USE ALL OVER KENTUCKY.

The Act Adopted By the Last Legislature Goes Into Effect.

Pursuant to an act which became a law February 8, 1904, the various county school book commissions throughout the state shortly afterwards selected each from a list submitted by the school book commission a series of text books for use in common schools for the period of five years. The state commission thereupon canvassed the several returns and ascertained and tabulated a series of such books as had been selected by a majority of the county commissions, which tabulation was proclaimed by the governor to be the uniform series of school books to be used throughout the state for a period of five years beginning September 1, 1904.

By a lapse of the old contract the new series went into effect in this county on July 1. All schools will be required to use the new books, but pupils having the old books may present them for exchange for the new ones by paying in addition the exchange prices. Books to be presented for exchange, however, must have all leaves intact and be in such condition as to be fit for use in school, and must be of like subject and same grade as books desired. A number of dealers have been appointed throughout the county to sell and exchange the new books. Any new book may be had at the retail price.

IN THE COURTS

Police Court.
Police Judge D. L. Sanders this morning decided a case which had been hanging fire for more than a week, coming up daily in police court and being left open for further investigation and proof.

This was the case against Robert Torian, a poultry and produce dealer, who was charged with doing a wholesale business without a license. He was warranted more than a week ago and claimed in court that he could not be legally termed a "wholesale" dealer because he sometimes bought in small lots, some times sold in small lots and also did some pretty heavy buying and selling. The evidence finally developed that he bought hundreds of dozens of eggs and also sold them in large lots, and the court assessed a fine of $20 and costs, but the fine will be set aside as Mr. Torian only wanted the court to construe his business, and promising to secure a wholesale license.

Mrs. Sweeney, white, who has been begging about the city and is said getting drunk on her charity fund, was fined $10 and costs for being drunk and disorderly, but the fine suspended during good behavior. She promised to leave town.

The case against Julian Morgan and George Garvey, white, for alleged malicious assault on Foreman Alex McCarty and his nephew Alex McCarty, Jr., of the marine ways, was continued until Wednesday.

CONCEALED WEAPON FOUND ON A GIRL

She Came to Paducah From Livingston County.

It Is Charged That She Took Money From Dairyman Claude Russell and W. Y. Griffith.

Fined for Carrying Pistol.

Hell Watson a 17 year old white girl originally from Livingston county, is in jail here with a fine of $25 and costs and ten days jail sentence against her, but this may not end her troubles, as officers intend to prefer more serious charges than those under which she was fined—that of carrying a concealed weapon. The girl's troubles date back several months before she came to Paducah. She was charged in Smithland with having aided and incited the firing of a house in the county, but pulled out of it in some way, although she did admit that she guided a man supposed to have done the firing to the place which burned.

After the girl's arrival in Paducah she was placed in the home of the Friendless but later a home was found for her on the W. Y. Griffith dairy on the Cairo road. She remained there sometime, but finally transferred her home to the Claude Russell dairy, nearby.

Sunday morning the girl left Mr. Russell's house and got a "lift" from Dairyman Griffith to town, the dairyman permitting her to ride in his wagon.

Shortly after the girl's departure from the Russell home a large pistol was missed and also $25 in cash. Mr. Griffith, after the girl left his wagon, missed $35 in cash and the police were immediately notified and instituted search for her.

The girl went to the Tally Hilly stable and hired a rig, and drove into the country. The detectives caught her about 6 o'clock in the evening at Third and Broadway and took her to the city hall. She was found with a new $18 watch and a 44 calibre pistol hidden away in her clothes.

She explained to the officers that the reason she had the pistol was on account of a sweetheart she intended shooting. As to the watch she said she bought it with $18 given her by Mr. Griffith. She denied strenuously the theft of money from the Russell home.

In passing on the warrant charging her with carrying concealed weapons Police Judge Sanders stated she was the first woman he had been called upon to judge on such a charge and he wanted to know more about the case—more than the mere pleading guilty.

The girl would not say anything more to the court than that she "just had the pistol" and he assessed the fine of $25 and costs and ten days in jail.

The officers are investigating the money matters, and if sufficient evidence is secured, will take out a warrant against her for larceny.

The arrest of the girl probably prevented a shooting scrape, as the girl had not had time to make any defense after failing to find the man.

The pistol was found by accident. Detectives Baker and Moore finding it after she had been arrested for theft.

Gave Out Advance Information.

New Orleans, July 10.—Edwin S. Holmes, the statistical expert of the cotton bureau, gave out advance flashes of the past few cotton reports by wigwagging the figures with the use of a window shade in the locked compilation room and from under the very nose of Secretary Wilson himself.

This is the story told here today by employes of the Southern Cotton Association who had it from Secretary Cheatham in Memphis about a week ago, under promise of secrecy until the report should be made public. Publicity Agent Fairchild told the same account here last week.

Holmes would have an accomplice across the street who would catch the signal according to a prearranged code.

Louisville, Ky., July 10.—Addison R. Smith has been elected third vice president of the Louisville and Nashville railroad, with headquarters in Louisville. Mr. Smith is at present general freight agent of the Atlantic and West Point Western railroad, with headquarters in Montgomery. He is son of Horace P. Smith, and a nephew of President Smith, of the L. and N.

NOTHING DOING.

Cigarette Reformer Returned to Golconda.

A member of the Anti-Cigarette League made his appearance in Paducah this morning but decided not to convert the smokers in Paducah but to return to Golconda.

About 8 o'clock a young man of ordinary appearance, with rather a "jagged" look, shuffled into the city hall. Showing a shaggy head through the window in Chief Collins' office, he asked for the "Moyer." Chief Collins informed him that the mayor was not in and asked if he could do anything for him.

He said he wanted to talk about cigarette smoking, and while the chief advised him to reform himself first, he told the stranger he could do anything so it did not block the sidewalks or otherwise interfere with the general public.

The cigarette reformer said he would go back to Golconda, and went.

Nonenmacher Released.

Manager Lloyd stated this afternoon that he had received a telegram from Nonenmacher stating that he had been released and wanted to come here. Manager Lloyd is full up in his pitching staff, but has not decided. Lloyd stated this afternoon that if Honno was run in two games against Paducah, that Platt would oppose him. "Whenever Honno goes in, then Platt will go in," were Lloyd's words. He intends to show Honno that Paducah could get along without him.
